RENEWED REQUEST FOR REFUND (IMPROPER CHARGES TO DEPOSIT ACCOUNT)

Dear S I R:

In the communication dated July 6, 2010, the Technical Center refused our request made February 26, 2010 for a refund of $1,220, related to the fees of $440 and $780 mistakenly charged to our Deposit Account 13-0235 on 2/23/10. The fees charged 2/23/10 were charged in error, as excess claims already had been paid for by the $1,050 fee charged on 8/19/08.

In response to our previous request, the Technical Center indicated that the total \$1,220 fees charged $2/23/\underline{10}$ already had been refunded, in the amount of \$750, on $2/1/\underline{07}$.

However, the \$750 refund made $2/1/\underline{07}$ did not and could not correct the \$440 and \$780 fees subsequently charged in error on $2/23/\underline{10}$. Instead, the 2/1/07 refund corrected a previous mistaken charge of \$750 on $4/27/\underline{06}$.

Application Serial No. 10/575,532 Renewed Request for Refund dated: August 5, 2010

Accordingly, we again request a refund of the $1,220 overcharge for excess claims fees made 2/23/10. Alternatively, we would greatly appreciate a clear explanation of the charges and refunds already made.

Applicants believe no additional fees are due in connection with this Request. If additional fees are deemed necessary, Applicants' Attorneys hereby authorize the Commissioner to charge such fees to our Deposit Account 13-0235.

Respectfully submitted,

By /Alan T. Harrison/
